*Please stand as you are able

On Worship: after the absolution in most Divine Services is the Introit. "Introit" is a Latin word that means, "He goes in." It is the part of the service when the presiding minister enters into the chancel to perform his duties. While he does that the congregation speaks or sings a portion of one or more psalms. This gives the congregation a word of God upon which to meditate while the pastor makes his way to the altar.
