

And a voice
came out of the cloud,
saying,
"This is my Son,
my Chosen One;
listen to him!"

The Third Lenten Banner

This banner finds us in the Garden of Gethsemane. We gather with Peter, James, and John to hear Jesus urge us to "watch and pray". The violet pathway leads across a field of black to remind us of sin into which the devil so anxiously waits to lead us. Here there is opportunity to talk about his wiles and his cunning, crafty ways so that we are aware of what to watch for. Knowing our enemy is not flesh and blood but the powers of darkness, we can stand ready in our watch, clad in the whole armor of God, as described in Ephesians 6. The white field contrasts to the black as the cleansed does to sin. We pray that we will not "fall asleep" in our communication with God, but that our hearts will always be filled with His Holy Spirit to keep us awake to temptation, be strong in our defense against it, and constant in prayer. Though we do not always remain pure and free from sin, we know our Savior has won the victory over it. His grace, repentance makes that victory ours.
