QUINQUAGESIMA

March 3, 2019

Please stand as you are able

On Woship: The part of the Divine Service after the Introit is the Kyrie. Kyrie (pronounced kee-ee-eigh) is Greek for "Lord." The presiding minister bids the congregation to pray in regard to something specific and the congregation responds by praying, "Lord, have mercy." Since each petition of the congregation begins with the word, "Lord." That part of the service is called the Kyrie.
