FIRST SUNDAY IN LENT

March 10, 2019

*Please stand as you are able

On Worship: during Lent the Church has customarily fasted. On Ash Wednesday we heard our Lord's instructions about fasting from Matthew 6:16-21. Today we hear of our Lord's own fasting in the wilderness while He endured temptation (Matthew 4:1-11). Fasting trains us to say no to our flesh so that when the desire in question is a sin we have trained to say no to it. During Divine Service then the Church fasts from certain forms of praise. The Alleluias and the Gloria are typically omitted.

LENTEN BANNERS (On the south Sanctuary wall)

Lenten banners will take us this Lenten season on the pathway of our Lord's passion. The first Lenten banner depicts Jesus in Jerusalem. The color purple symbolizes royalty, that Jesus is King of all Kings; the color violet means the "pathway" on the banner, and is also the seasonal color for Lent. It is a call to repentance. The palm branch reminds us of the paradox of joyous shouts of "Hosanna" from the crowd as Jesus entered Jerusalem, and the shouts of "Crucify Him" a few days later. Because our flesh is weak, we succumb to sin for which our Lord laid down his life. It is ever important that we "follow the violet pathway" through our life.

Guests, Please sign the guest register in the hallway and/or the yellow card found in the pew rack, drop it in the offering plate, or hand it to an usher. Please come worship with us again.
