FOURTH SUNDAY IN LENT

March 31, 2019

Please stand as you are able

On Worship: Lent is a time of fasting. Fasting is typically from food (Matthew 6:16-18). Contemporary practice includes fasting during Lent from whatever each individual chooses. In the Divine Service we observe the custom of fasting from certain forms of praise during Lent. As a result in the Gloria and This Is the Feast are omitted during Lent as are the Alleluias.

The Fourth Lenten Banner

Sackcloth sets the background for the fourth Lenten banner. The reason for Jesus' death hits home as we ponder our own sins and how heavily they lay upon the Savior. Admitting to ourselves, to each other, and to God the personal problems and sins we battle helps us bear one another's burden (as we are commanded to do in Gal. 6) and gives us strength to take up our crosses and follow Jesus. Take note also of each rusty nail that is tied to a tassel at the bottom. These help us to remember the corruption that enters our lives. Sin bends and twists and "rusts" heart and lives, and all of us experience its terror and tribulations. But because of Him who was nailed to a cross, we can also experience a peace which the world cannot give and hope for a sin-free life to come. The nails on the bottom of the banner make a happy tinkling sound when they hit against each other. The Lord restores to us the joy of His salvation.

Guests, Please sign the guest register in the hallway and/or the yellow card found in the pew rack, drop it in the offering plate, or hand it to an usher. Please come worship with us again.
