*Lord's Prayer

Collect of the Day

P The Lord be with you.

C: And also with you.

P: Let us pray.

Almighty God, graciously behold this Your family for whom our Lord Jesus Christ was willing to be betrayed and delivered into the hands of sinful men to suffer death upon the cross; through the same Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

C: Amen.

Concluding Collect

P: Let us pray.

Almighty and everlasting God, You willed that Your Son should bear for us the pains of the cross and so remove from us the power of the adversary. Help us so to remember and give thanks for our Lord's passion that we may receive forgiveness of sin and redemption from everlasting death; through Jesus Christ, our Lord.

C: Amen.

The final candle is extinguished.

The strepitus

All leave in silence and minimal light

Welcome: Welcome on a very solemn night. Reflecting on the power of death will help us grasp more fully the unfailing Easter life into which God raised Jesus and raises us. Let us worship. Guests, Please sign the guest register in the hallway and/or the yellow card found in the pew rack, drop it in the offering plate or hand it to an usher and please come worship with us again.

The final Lenten banner

A flower's beautiful bloom ends in a wither, but from the unsightly shrivel comes seeds for new flowers. Days end, but after the sleep and darkness comes a new day. As the Lenten season ends, our pathway brings us to the end of Jesus' passion. His innocent life has been lived; His holy blood has been shed. This Holy Week let us experience awe at the overwhelming limitlessness of His love and deep thankfulness for His amazing grace. Our sinful selves have died with Him, have been buried with Him, and we can anticipate the celebration on Sunday of our glorious walk with Him in newness of life.
