FIFTH SUNDAY IN LENT

April 7, 2019

*Please stand as you are able

On Worship: during Lent the Gloria is omitted from Divine Service, setting three, which means the service moves from the Kyrie when we ask the Lord for His mercy and the Salutation when the pastor turns to the congregation and says, "The Lord be with you." The congregation responds, "And with thy spirit." This salutation is just that: a greeting. This is how Christians may and ought to greet one another (Ruth 2:4; 2Timothy 4:22) with the Lord's presence and is a much more profound greeting than "Good morning" or something similar.
