PALM/PASSION SUNDAY

April 14, 2019

*Please stand as you are able

On Worship: today we observe the Procession of Palms. If the weather is good, we will gather outside in the parking lot and begin the service there. If not, we will begin in the hallway. Those who are not ambulatory may wait in the sanctuary for the rest of the congregation to arrive. Also this morning we will observe a different order of service from Palm Sundays in the past. Today the entire Passion of Our Lord will be read from Matthew's Gospel. Please see the order of service and the screens in order to follow along.

*Collect

P: Let us pray.

Most merciful God, as the people of Jerusalem, with palms in their hands, gathered to greet Your dearly beloved Son when He came into His Holy City, grant that we may ever hail Him as our King and, when He comes again, may go forth to meet Him with trusting and steadfast hearts and follow Him in the way that leads to eternal life; through the same Jesus Christ, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

C: Amen.

*Holy Gospel

John 12:12-19

P: The Holy Gospel according to St. John, the twelfth chapter.

C: Glory to You, O Lord.

C: in the name of the Lord.

All glory, laud, and honor
To You, Redeemer, King,

And David's royal Son,
Now in the Lord's name coming,
Our King and Blessèd One.     Refrain

2 The company of angels
Is praising You on high,
And we with all creation
In chorus make reply.     Refrain

With palms before You went;
Our praise and prayer and anthems
Before You we present.     Refrain

4 To You before Your passion
They sang their hymns of praise;
To You, now high exalted,
Our melody we raise.     Refrain

5 As You received their praises,
Accept the prayers we bring,
O Source of ev'ry blessing,

Scarlet Paraments

The paraments for Holy Week from Palm Sunday to Maundy Thursday have a background color of scarlet, associated with the Passion and the color of blood. The banner behind the pulpit, the bookmark on the pulpit, and the right side of the Pastor's stole all depict the road Christ traveled on His triumphant entry into Jerusalem when the crowd laid their garments and branches before His path as they cried out their hosannas. Christ's journey continued down the road to the upper room, depicted on one of the altar cloths. Even while Christ shared the Passover meal with His disciples, He knew that the cross awaited Him; thus through the window is a glimpse of three crosses on a hill in the distance. On the other side of the altar, Christ's path continued to the Garden of Gethsemane. Again, Christ was aware that the cross on Golgotha was waiting for Him in the distance as He prayed to His father in Matthew 26:39 "And going a little farther He fell on His face and prayed, saying, My Father, if it be possible, let this cup pass from me; nevertheless, not as I will, but as You will." How humbling for us to know that Christ did not insist on His rights! On the banner behind the lectern, the crown of thorns depicts the suffering and mocking Christ endured as He continued down the road ending at a cross. This is also shown by the crown of thorns superimposed on a cross on the bookmark on the lectern and on the left hand side of the Pastor's stole.
