GOOD FRIDAY

April 19, 2019

Please stand as you are able

On Worship: Good Friday Tenebrae includes liturgical elements from different parts of the hymnal. Because Tenebrae is the service of darkness the screens are not employed to aid in worship. Therefore the pages are included in this order of service. The congregation should pay particular attention to the Responsory on page 222. It will be sung tonight according to the pattern on page 222. Also pay attention to the Nunc Dimittis on page 165. The Gloria Patri is omitted during Holy Week.

Almighty God, graciously behold this Your family for whom our Lord Jesus Christ was willing to be betrayed and delivered into the hands of sinful men to suffer death upon the cross; through the same Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.
C: Amen.
P: Let us pray.
Almighty and everlasting God, You willed that Your Son should bear for us the pains of the cross and so remove from us the power of the adversary. The Final Lenten Banner

A flower's beautiful bloom ends in a wither, but from the unsightly shrivel comes seeds for new flowers. Day's end, but after the sleep and darkness comes a new day. As the Lenten season ends, our pathway brings us to the end of Jesus' passion. His innocent life has been lived; His holy blood has been shed. This Holy Week let us experience awe at the overwhelming limitlessness of His love and deep thankfulness for His amazing grace. Our sinful selves have died with Him, have been buried with Him, and we can anticipate the celebration on Sunday of our glorious walk with Him in newness of life.

Guests, Please sign the guest register in the hallway and/or the yellow card found in the pew rack, drop it in the offering plate, or hand it to an usher. Please come worship with us again.
