SIXTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

May 10, 2015

Please stand as you are able

On worship: the ordinaries are the parts of the service that stay the same for the most part from Sunday to Sunday. I have said before that they are mainly for the children of the congregation. The parts of the service that change from Sunday to Sunday are the readings, the hymns, and the sermon. These parts are called propers. They are called that because they are proper to the particular Sunday on which they occur. While children can get something out of these parts of the service, because they change they are more for adults who are better able follow ideas from Sunday to Sunday.

Where do you want to spend eternity?

Come back in the warmth of Jesus' love.

Come share your Jesus!

...and all God's children say, "Come."

Do you have a passion --- for the Lord?

Are you hot or cold or just luke warm?

Let someone else do it! I'm not able. And then, it never gets done.

Who gave you your talent?

Jesus loves you. What is your excuse? Now?

Jesus put you first. Whom do you put first?

God forgave you. Whom do you forgive?
