THE DAY OF PENTECOST

May 24, 2015

Please stand as you are able

On Worship: Today is the day of Pentecost. The word Pentecost is a Greek word meaning “fifty.” The Day of Pentecost is fifty days after Easter. In Leviticus 23:9-21 God commanded the Israelites to present a special grain offering fifty days after they presented their offering of first fruits. That means that the Israelites presented their offering of first fruits on the Sunday after the Passover, which is Easter Sunday (1Corinthians 15:20-23), and then presented another special grain offering on the Day of Pentecost. This Day of Pentecost is the day that God chose to pour out His Holy Spirit on His Church (Acts 1:1-21).
