SEVENTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

June 2, 2019

Please stand as you are able

On Worship: Galatians 3:26-27 states, "...for in Christ Jesus you are all sons of God, through faith. For as many of you as were baptized into Christ have put on Christ." Thus those who are baptized become a son of God and obtain the privilege of calling Him Father. That is why the Lord's Prayer is prayed during the baptismal liturgy. At that moment the congregation is giving the prayer to the baptizand. The Lord's Prayer is the prayer in which we address God as "Our Father." Then later in the liturgy we pray the Lord's Prayer again as a congregation ordinarily would on a Sunday morning.
