FIFTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

June 28, 2015

*Please stand as you are able

On worship: This is the second baptism that we have had in recent weeks! In the baptismal service the candidate receives the sign of the holy cross on the forehead and on the heart. All I do is trace the shape of a cross on the candidate's forehead and heart with my finger. The Church has practiced this since ancient times because Baptism connects us to the blessings which Jesus earned for us when He died upon the cross (Acts 2:38; Romans 6:1-11). It is traced on the forehead and the heart to show that the Spirit now dwells in the heart and in the mind of the newly baptized (Acts 2:39, cf Revelation 7:3; 14:1). Make the sign of the cross in remembrance of your baptism!
